MEYER IN THE TOMBS.

The Alleged Poisoner Remanded for a Fleading on Thursday.

Two Pictures of Him Taken for the Rogues' Gallery.

He Looks Haggard, but Retains His Cool Demeanor.

The insignificant little man arrested in Detroit as the suspected poisoner of a score of people in various parts of the country, Dr. Henry C. F. Meyer, was brought down from Police Headquarters to the brownstone Court-House to-day to plend to an indictment charging with murder in the first degree in the poisoning by a long series of doses of antimony of Ludwig Brandt, or Gus tave A. J. Baum, of this city.

Meyer, who is said to be in real life complaint yesterday, but he spent : ters and ate a hearty breakfast this

At 9.30 o'clock Detective-Sergeants Jacob Von Gerichton and Phil Reilly secretly took the prisoner out of the Headquarters building by a basement door on the Mott street side and around to Broadway and Third street to the photograph gallery of J. K. Coe, the place where the pictures for the Rogues' Gallery are taken.

The prisoner made no objection to the proceeding, and two negatives were speeally made, one a profile view and the other showing the full, weak face, covered with a two weeks' growth of dirty yellow beard. His head was adorn ed with a six months' growth of hall and the man was clad in a cheap suit the remains of the two men killed and of bluish clothing, a dirty straw hat their bodies horribly mutilated last Fri- police, was dismissed for intexication and a pair of shoes that probably cost day, on the New York, New Haven and by Commissioner Hayden this morning the control of t

"It would do me no good to speak."

At 10 20 the detactives, with Detective Sergeant Trainor, took Dr. Meyer out again, this time to a Fourth avenue street car in the Howery, and thence down to the Court-House, where for an hour he sat in the 4 by 6 room styled the "detective office," awaiting the call of the District-Attorney.

Meantime Joseph H. Moss, representing the firm of Howe & Hummel, appeared with a retainer from the Detroit friends of Dr. Meyer, and when the man was arraigned before Judge Cowing, in Part I. of the Court of General Sessions Mr. Moss was by his side.

In court Dr. Meyer wore an expression of perfect quiescence. His dead-bine eyes were focussed on the Judge, but tiley bore no expression. He uttered no word, but his face was hasgard, and he looked much older than thirty years.

District-Attorney McIntyre appeared for the prosecution, and the court chamber was crowded to the doors by a throng of curlosity-seekers.

The proceedings did not consume two

"Henry Meyer, otherwise William Reuter, and sometimes known as Hugo Mahler, and Henry L. E. Meyer, you are charged with murder in the first degree, what have you to say; are you guilty, as charged in the indictment, or not guilty? The prisoner looked nelther to the right nor the left. His face expressed no emotion, and Joseph Moss interposed:

"Your Honor, we have only just been retained in this case, and we have had no time to examine into it. Mr. Howe is actually out of the county. We ask that the pleading stand until Thursday,"

Judge Cowing suggested that the plead of not guilty be entered and then an adjournment be had, but at the request of Mr. Moss ailowed the matter to stand till Thursday, committing Dr. Meyer to the Tombs.

the Tombs.
Representatives of several criminal law firms called at Police Hoadquarters to see Dr. Meyer last evening, but were denied admission by Chief McLaughlin, of the Detective Bureau.
Among these callers were O'Sullivan, the chemical, medical and legal meteor who shot across the metropolitan sky during the famous trial of Fr. Rebert W. Buchanan, the convicted poisoner now awiting the disposition of his case on appeal.

now awiting the disposition of his case on appeal.

Dr. C'Sullivan was accompanied by Dr. Walter T Scheele, the German chemist, who testified in the Buchanar trial that he had trained in a German chemical school for the express service of expert in criminal trials.

Dr. O'Sullivan said the friends of the prisoner in Detroit had communicated with him, but he could not say that he had been retained as counsel.

Dr. Scheele told the reporters that he knew the prisoner. That he was not Dr. Meyer, but that the man had told the truth when he said at Headquarters that his name was Carl Schaeffer of its Clifford street, Detroit.

"Schaeffer is about thirty."

He was born in Minden, Germany," said He was born in Minden, Germany," said Or, Schoele.

"He comes of wealthy parents. He has been well educated. His brothers are connected with the German army, and one of them is an officer in the famous Eighth Westphalia Regiment, of Paderborm, of which the Caarewitch is the Honorary Colonel. I am sure there is a mistake in this affair, but I can't tell now where it is."

Dr. Schoele declined to-day to say where he got his information about the prisoner, and W. J. O'Sullivan said he could not say whether he would join the defense till he had a chance to talk with the prisoner and learn more about the case.

WEDDED HIS WARD.

Excise Commissioner Holme Married to Mrs. Dr. Fraser C. Fuller.

It was no surprise to politicians to learn this morning that Excise Comdssioner Leicester Holme had married Mrs. Fraser C. Fuller. Mr. Holme was appointed guardian ad litem of Mrs. Fu., er, who was under sixteen years of age when she married divorce he named Mr. Holme as co-respondent. He did not obtain a decree, but Mrs. Fuller did later, and it was then reported that she was going to wed Mr. Holme.

Dr. Fuller. When Dr. Fuller sued for divorce he named Mr. Holme as co-re-

The Commissioner was soundly thrashed by Dr. Fuller on a Long Island City ferry-boat one day, and more trouble between them was predicted. The curtain was rung down, however, by the death of Dr. Fuller.

This is Mr. Holme's second venture in marriage. He was divorced from the former Mrs. Holme. He was appointed Justice of the City Court by Gov. Hill. He was Mayor Grant's private secretary, and last year was appointed Excise Commissioner by Mayor Grant. He was also a college Place Improvement Commissioner.

Besides his salary of $5,000 a year he has a good income from references.

The present Mrs. Holme was a Miss Hastings, of California. She has an estate valued at $1,000.00, which is held in trust for her until she is twenty-six more.

Mrs. Schamber stoutly maintained that it was not her husband, but the Coroner's jury rendered a verdict that the dead man was Christian Schamber, and he was buried as such at the county's expense.

Last night while Court East Buffalo of the Order of Foresters was in session Schamber appeared at the door and demanded admittance. He was recognized, aithough but a shadow of his former self and, after siating that he had been ill in a hospital in another City ever since he left here, he left the lodge-room.

His friends, to whom he had told his story, say that he is at a hotel here under medical treatment, and had not decided whether he would return to his or not. The trouble with his wife is said to have been on account of another woman, with whom he was allegeb to have been intimate.

BIG ADVANCE IN HAY.

Prices Given a Boom by the Great Demand from Abroad.

The Prod to Exchange has appointed committee of five members of the haytrade to draft rules to govern the has trade. The step is made necessary by the great and increasing demand for hay made by Great Britain and other countries in Europe where the crop has been ruined.

The members of the Produce Ex change have considered it necessary to devise some system for the inspection of hay before shipment. A classification, grading, and price list of hay is to be prepared also by the committee.

This is the first time in recent years that Europe has bought largely of hay from this country, and a big advance in prices wil Iresult in consequence. A large shipper says that most of the hay exported comes from Canada by rail, and is reshipped here. It is carried on tramp steamships chiefly, and the trade promises to become enormous.

Prices now range from $16.50 to $17.50 a ton. Canadian hay being cheaper than American. In England prices now range from $5 to $40 a ton, and it is scarce at that. Many of the poorer owners there are killing their stock, being unable to buy the animals feed. When they need cattle again they will have to send to America.

Australia is the only country in Eulevise some system for the inspection

FAINTED IN COURT.

Mrs. Foote Secures the Release of Her Young Husband,

CONEY ISLAND, July 18.-Charles Foote, the eighteen-year-old young man who was arrested last night for abandoning his wife, whom he married in Chicago on June 12, was arraigned before Justice Sutherland this morning. His wife sat among the spectators for some time listening to his examination. Suddenly she began to cry, and asked the Justice if she could withdraw the charge. At first Justice Sutherland refused to allow her to do so, and went on with the examination.

The young woman suddenly stopped sobbing, and when the court officer walked over to her he found she had fainted. She was carried outside and revived.

This belief was strengthened by the morning report from the World's Fair city that the temperature was only 65. He also predicted that to-night and to-morrow would be cooler.

The increased humidity to-day promised a greater number of prostrations. Only three were reported yesterday by the police, although the heat was more intense. Humidity, however, is much more productive of prostrations than heat.
